MOANA HOTEL DANCE WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

At the Moana Hotel last evening a hop was given for the benefit of the passengers aboard the S. S. Korea which was one of the largest of the general dances given there for some time. Not only were many of the Korea's passengers present, but many townfolk and Army, Navy and Marine officers and ladies. It was a very dressy affair, and many beautiful gowns were in evidence. Among those who were welcomed by Honolulu friends were the Smith party and Miss Hector, who were here during the Floral Parade, Mrs. Smith acting as one of the mahini judges. The Hawaiian music was a novelty to most of the strangers.

PERSONAL.

Pollard's No. 1 company leaves today for Hilo on the Mauna Kea.

Otto Wix, the artist, is booked to leave for Kauai on the Kinau this evening.

Attorney A. F. Judd is booked to leave on the Mikahala this evening for Maui.

E. A. Mott-Smith, president of the Board of Health, will meet with all the inspectors this morning. He inspected the dispensary yesterday and is generally familiarizing himself with the work.

Mrs. C. W. Fairbanks and her daughter, Mrs. Timmons, will leave for Hawaii on the Mauna Kea today. She will accompany her husband and the Governor on part of the trip around the Big Island.

G. T. Earle, brother of E. T. Earle of the great Earle Fruit Company of California, is a through passenger on the Korea. Mr. Earle and Judge Robinson of the Circuit Court were together in Judge Estee's law office during their early law days. Mr. Earle is now one of Oakland's wealthy residents.

R. K. Bonine received word on the last mail of the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Jane Atkinson Bonine, which occurred at Lancaster, Pa. At the time of her death, Mrs. Bonine was ninety-eight years old and in the full possession of all her faculties. She leaves five sons and daughters, twenty-two grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

L. A. Thurston and A. L. C. Atkinson will be passengers on the Mauna Kea for Hawaii today. They will join ex-Vice President Fairbanks and Governor Frear on their Hawaii trip. The Fairbanks party will get on the Mauna Kea at Maui. Autos and a special train will be used by the party on the Big Island.

Mary E. Wynn, who will be remembered as having a ladies' hair-dressing parlor at the Hawaiian Hotel some years ago, has recently been married to Eugene McConnell of Goldfield, Nevada, in Reno. She was in partnership in the real estate business in Goldfield with Mr. McConnell, but business in the mining town ceased to be profitable, so they moved to Reno, where they were married.

Rev. Henry Loomis of Yokohama, who is the head of the American Bible Society of Japan, will be one of the speakers at the meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions at Central Union church at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Loomis is an eloquent speaker, and his account of the work being carried on in the Orient will be interesting. All who desire to attend the board meeting will be welcomed.

"Sir!" exclaimed the injured party, "you stuck your umbrella into my eye." "Oh, no," replied the cheerful offender, "you are mistaken." "Mistaken?" demanded the irate man. "You idiot! I know when my eye is hurt. I think!" "Doubtless," replied the cheerful offender, "but you don't know my umbrella. I borrowed this one from a friend. Good day."—Boston Globe.
